

Answers

1. To echo the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem.
2. He mediated between King John and the barons before Magna Carta.
3. Wynkyn de Worde's press established Fleet Street as the centre of English printing.
4. They are 17th-century automata representing mythical guardians of London.
5. He aligned St Martin's spire with St Paul's dome.
6. The west wall of St Martin within Ludgate.
7. He rebuilt churches, funded hospitals, and transformed civic welfare.
8. Apothecaries', Stationers', Cutlers', Tallow Chandlers', Vintners', Skinners'.
9. Through its blend of law, printing, trade, charity, and ecclesiastical heritage.
10. A fictional but historically plausible scrivener whose voice connects modern visitors to early-18th-century London.